Just because other people have had credit, legal and regulatory concerns, we should not be doing the same. This brings up lots of commercial issues and forces us into the pecking order for things like fuel. We do not have the ability to bring new fuel to market and they already did. We don't have to fill this niche. Maybe it is time to change our format? Do we need to do a PG&E Credit Overview presentation, then do a Cash Supply Conference? Or is that overkill?
