Thursday, February 11, 2013 What happens if your dog has a stomach ache? If your dog is in obvious discomfort, the best thing to do is to get them to the vet straight away. This will help you to know more about your pet's condition. Are they dehydrated? Does your dog have a stomach ache? If you think your dog is having a stomach ache it is important to make sure they are drinking enough water. Water intake is affected by the weather and treats. The symptoms of a stomach ache in dogs can include: Unrelenting growling Watery eyes Discharge from the anus Lying in a supine position rather than being erect and alert. If your dog starts exhibiting these signs of discomfort, you should call your vet and have them seen as soon as possible. The Federal government has announced the removal of coins and other cash-like items from the list of items that will receive a GST low rate of 5 per cent. Treasury spokesman Chris Richardson told ABC News Online the news is a result of Liberal senator Bill Heffernan historic signing ceremony in Beijing could lead to an historic first for the United States -- a Chinese-American president. Paula Nancy Shih, the first American woman to serve as head of the National Endowment for the Arts, signs a proclamation commemorating the 40th anniversary of the National Endowment for the Arts in her office at the U.S. Embassy in Beijing. The National Endowment for the Arts has been sending American artists abroad as part of cultural outreach programs for decades. But its own programs in China now are the longest-running in the nation's history. The first signed
